Description

Lenticular boxwood snuffbox enhanced with brass nails, inscription "Pierre Raye Sellier Bourelier à Vieillevigne", and dated 1868, work of Popular Art from the 19th century. This snuffbox is in good general condition. Please note: some scratches, dirt and wear from time, see photos. * The saddler works the stuffing and leather in order to make harness parts for working horses. This term, now little used, differentiated the saddler, working in the countryside (work harness, pack saddle) from the saddler, working in the city (horse-drawn carriages, saddles, etc.). In some regions, especially when he worked in the city, the saddler was also called a harness maker.
