Description

Elegant reliquary in carved and gilded wood, it receives in its central medallion a relic of Saint Dominic. It is possibly Dominic de Guzman, died in 1221 and founder of the order of the Preaching Friars, that is to say the Dominicans. On the back are two seals of the Vatican protecting access to the reliquary. An Italian work from the end of the 18th or the very beginning of the 19th century. Dimensions of 25 cm by 17. Good condition - small crack in the wood.
