Description

Violet wood chest of drawers with a crossbow front, and very pronounced curved sides, with a beautiful marquetry of upset curling in band surrounds. It opens on the front with three drawers in two rows with six gilt bronze keyholes (including one simulated) with the head of a spooky animal, shell and acanthus leaf. Four pretty falling handles in gilded bronze are distinguished by their finally chiseled and animated rosette.

Beautiful gilded bronze trim also by the apron with openwork decoration of shell, foliage and scrolls, by the falls decorated with frieze to the queen in medallion surrounded by acanthus leaves and shell, falling in a baguette up to the hooves enveloping shell and acanthus leaf.
