Description

DESCRIPTION: very beautiful two-door ceremonial piece of furniture in three-material Boule marquetry with brass, mother-of-pearl and bone, on an ebony veneer background. Very beautiful ornamentation of gilded bronzes with large ingot molds framing the doors, ingot molds moving on all parts of the piece of furniture, which gives it great refinement. Large high and low falls, foot sabots. In the center of the doors, a large marquetry with a motif of bouquets and urns, framed by scrolls, volutes and interlacing of brass, mother-of-pearl and bone, with a reminder at the upper corners, framing masks of Bacchus. Top in gray-green Aleppo marble, interior in mahogany with two adjustable shelves.
