

Charles X Sewing Table - Work Table

1 850 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Mahogany

Description

Work table, known as a "travailleuse," in polished mahogany, from the Restoration period.

Lyre-shaped base, with three simulated metal strings and ebony balls, gilded bronze rosettes, set on a doubly curved pedestal.

The hinged lid, lined with a mirror on its inner side, opens to reveal a storage space with three compartments, beneath which slides a large drawer.

The lyres are connected by a wool basket in the shape of a gutter.

In very good condition.
