Description

DIVAN-REVUE, by Viscount A. de Launay Play performed on March 8 and 11, 1891 at the Cercle du Divan Printed by G. VERRONET, Lyon, 1891 Format; 15 x 19 cm Rare and amusing collection illustrated by 7 albumen prints devoted to a play. The Cercle du Divan, formed in 1841, was the circle of the aristocracy and the upper middle class of Lyon. Its objective was to provide a place for friendly meetings for its members. Its headquarters, after several moves, moved to the building at 27 Place Bellecour. The Cercle du Divan joined forces with that of the Jockey Club and the Cercle de Lyon to create the Cercle de l'Union in 1917, which today has 500 members.
