Description

Large fake bottle of MUMM Cordon Rouge Champagne (reminiscent of the Legion of Honor, a sign of excellence for the brand...) with a coat of arms label indicating "Purveyors of champagne in appointment to HM QUEEN ELISABETH II" supplier to the Queen. Bottle used by a Wine and Spirits merchant for his stand decoration, at Wine Fairs, and in his business premises. Carefully made, in resin, from the 1960s/70s, with a rendering very close to a bottle of champagne but in a very large size. It is in good used condition (slight lack of color due to friction from use...). The bottle in the photo, which gives the proportion, is also a fake Champagne bottle, in 1 liter glass. It is also for sale on another ad for glass advertising bottles. It was also used as an advertising decoration for an exhibition on a fair
