Description

Exceptional mantelpiece set - 19th century
Composed of a clock and two cassioles in cobalt blue porcelain and finely chiseled gilt bronze. The clock, in the shape of a vase, is richly decorated with floral garlands and framed by two putti in gilt bronze, adding a graceful and refined touch. It rests on a sculpted base decorated with hand-painted porcelain plaques, illustrating delicate allegorical scenes. The matching cassioles, with symmetrical elegance, feature bronze crowns and finely crafted lids topped with floral bouquets. The ensemble bears witness to the splendor and refinement of the 19th century, characteristic of the great achievements of the Napoleon III era. An exceptional piece, ideal for enhancing a classic interior or a prestigious collection.
