Description

Superb hand-painted porcelain box, decorated with a finely chiseled gilt bronze mount. Oval in shape, it features a delicate decoration of floral garlands and gilded motifs on a green and red background, characteristic of the Louis XVI style. Its removable lid is decorated with bronze festoons and topped with a richly sculpted handle, giving it a refined elegance. The interior is in white porcelain enhanced with small painted flowers. Marked under the base, this exceptional piece illustrates the know-how of 19th century French manufacturers, ideal for a collection or as a precious decorative object.
