Description

Immerse yourself in the elegance of yesteryear with this superb antique porcelain service dating from around 1900-1920. Made by the renowned French manufacturer Alfred Hache de Vierzon, this 110-piece set impresses with its artistic finish and hand-painted floral decoration. Each piece demonstrates masterful craftsmanship and attention to detail, giving the tableware a particularly romantic and timeless appeal. Despite its age, the service is well preserved and ideal for lovers of antique porcelain art, whether for elegant use or as a valuable collector's item. A real eye-catcher that combines elegance, history and French craftsmanship at the highest level.
