Description

Large Louis XV period armchair in molded and carved walnut with a queen's back. It rests on 4 arched legs ending in a scroll. The side crosspieces are horseshoe-shaped. The front crosspiece is curved and carved with a leafy shell. Whiplash armrests following the shape of the sides. Large flat, lively backrest with a leafy shell on the cornice as on the front of the seat. Fully pegged seat from the 18th century. It is covered with tapestry in the state and a 19th century spring system on the chassis with straps that do not allow you to see a nice surprise like a possible stamp because this seat is truly superb in its design and balance. Armchair that deserves to be covered with a pretty fabric. h: 92 cm width: 55.5 cm depth: 64 cm Seat: depth: 48.5 cm width: 56 cm h: 41.5 cm
