Description

A magnificent sculpture of a "Venetian Moor" from the late 19th century, standing 175 cm tall. The figure is dressed in a richly decorated costume, finely painted with golden details and floral motifs using the mecca technique and gold leaf gilding. The base, also adorned with floral motifs painted in oil, enhances the elegance and charm of the piece. This sculpture is a remarkable example of Venetian artistic tradition, distinguished by its refined craftsmanship and strong visual appeal.
