

Important Italian Terracotta Sculpture Cherub With Wheat Sheaf, Baroque Style - 17th Century

1 480 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Terracotta

Width : 32 cm

Height : 81 cm

Description

Important terracotta sculpture, Italian terracotta, Origin of Tuscany and/or Lombardy. This ornamentatio is a sculpture called in the round, sculptural technique which is completely detached from the background representing a cherub holding a sheaf of wheat; a real beautiful work of well-cut, naturalistic sculpture. Several meanings are attributed to it, namely: abundance and prosperity in Italian art, here representation of the house and life cycle of nature and spirituality - baroque style, late 17th century. These Sculptures adorned the facades, frescoes and sculpted elements of palaces and villas.

Dealer

Galerie Particulière antiquités

Généraliste

Mobile : 0612511221

3 rue Bailleul

Fresnay-sur-Sarthe 72130