Description

Commode with two continuous drawers with concealed chain. The piece of furniture is rounded thanks to both a vertical and horizontal movement, completely veneered in four-part Bois de Rose spread transversally to form the typical hearts; a maple fillet outlines the reserves of the sides and front. The dresser is embellished with chiseled and gilded bronze applications, handles, vents, sabots and decorations on the apron and uprights, the latter have the edge completely covered by a bronze profile that connects the foot shoe to the upper decoration. The "Sarrancolin Versailles" marble is molded on the contour. Oak wood interior.
