Description

Mirror, wall light in carved wood with two floors, 19th century. Very beautiful wall light made in the 1930s from a carved frame from the previous century. Possibility of putting this set in a mirror by changing the current glass into mirror glass. Note the beautiful work, quite rare, of the double floor requiring real mastery on the part of the sculptor. Complete and unrestored set in very good condition. Beautiful size, diameter 68 cm. Central piece of very beautiful effect for a large decoration. Possibility of sending in France and around the world by secure and insured package with order tracking. Invoice and certificate provided.
