Description

Here is a beautiful perfume bottle for travel, pocket, bag... Magnificently decorated, late 19th century, Louis XVI style. Octagonal porcelain bottle with a white background, hand-painted decoration. The main face shows in a central medallion a miniature composition on the theme of the toilet (fan, jewelry box, mirror, ewer, bottle) surrounded by a teeming decoration of white flowers, arabesques and multi-colored foliage. The back under the symbol of love represents two doves tied with a mauve ribbon above branches and a garland of roses.
Gold-gilded edge bearing a double leafy frieze separated by a net of pearls on the edge. Main stopper in 14 K gold mounted on a hinge with stamped decoration of multiple flowers, it closes perfectly; two illegible hallmarks. Inner stopper
