

Firesteel In A Box

400 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Wrought iron

Length : 5 cm.

Width : 3 cm.

Description

This flint lighter is a small box with a spring-loaded opening to hold a stone and a piece of tinder, thus constituting the complete kit for lighting a fire on the move. with a decoration engraved on both sides, and the large sides are reinforced to serve as a beating iron with the stone.

Dealer

Laurent Oïffer-Bonsel

Fine objects and Collector's objects...

Mobile : +33 6 80 15 84 82

22 rue de Beaune

Paris 75007