

Dining Table Attributed To Boris Tabacoff

1 000 EUR

Signature : Attribuée à Boris TABACOFF

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Glass

Diameter : 120 cm

Height : 72 cm

Description

Attributed to Boris TABACOFF Space Age model, Dining table, circular shape, crescent moon tripod base. Produced by Roche Bobois. 1970s. H: 72 D: 120 cm Boris Tabacoff, an artist of Bulgarian origin, studied at the Ecole Nationale Supérieure des Arts Décoratifs in Paris and began his career working with great designers such as Marcel Gascoïn and Marcel Breuer. In 1958, he founded his own design studio, where he created many iconic pieces of furniture that were widely exhibited and acclaimed. His designs are characterized by a minimalist approach, with clean lines and simple materials such as wood and metal. He also experimented with new forms, such as teardrop chairs and moon-shaped sofas. Tabacoff worked with many furniture brands, including Thonet, Disderot, Steiner and Prisunic.

Dealer

Galleries Georges Bac

cadres anciens et design des années 30 à nos jours

Mobile : 0698121340

Marché Biron, stand 106, 85 rue des Rosiers 93400 Saint Ouen

Paris 75017

Some of his most famous designs include the "Galbé" chair, the "Lune" sofa, and the "Globus" armchair. His work has been recognized with several awards, including the René Gabriel Prize in 1964 and the Prix de la Ville de Paris in 1969. Tabacoff was also a member of the jury for the prestigious French design award "Laque 71". Boris Tabacoff passed away in 2021 at the age of 91, leaving behind a significant legacy in the world of design.