Description

Majestic heraldic applique, solid walnut 6.5cm thick, openwork and carved in shape of urn, intended to be integrated into the woodwork of a bishopric, it was fixed on a thick wooden part that can be seen on back. Panel, in high relief, borders with classical sculpture steps, presents on centre the coat of arms of one prelate wearing the episcopal hat with wide brims accompanied by a cord with six tufts, it is with a transverse band, inlaid from boxwood.

Majestic provincial quality, I have not researched the origin.

Dimensions: 39cm x 26cm x 10cm. Weight: 2.8kg.

Good general condition, small cracks or small chips, nothing serious.
