Description

Original lithograph by Nino Giuffrida representing one of his famous children's heads signed in pencil by the artist lower right. Nino Giuffrida (1924-2015) had his studio-gallery on rue Lepic in Montmartre for a long time. He was part of the Montmartre microcosm. He met Picasso in his youth, which influenced his painting and his career. A successful painter, he even had a castle in the west of Paris where he lived and exhibited his works as in a museum. The lithograph is framed in a modern gilded baguette with some accidents. The dimensions of the lithograph on the plate are 33.5x24.2 cm.
