Description

Superb Andalusian cabinet from the end of the 19th century, made of exotic wood with refined marquetry and mother-of-pearl inlays, its geometric decoration, inspired by Moorish art, highlights finely assembled star and diamond patterns. Heir to the know-how of the artisans of Granada and Toledo, this cabinet is part of the Andalusian tradition of boxes and ceremonial furniture. It testifies to the taste of 19th century European collectors for objects of oriental inspiration. Rare collector's item, ideal for lovers of decorative arts and Andalusian history.
