Description

Rug after Gabriel Orozco's work titled: "Samurai Tree Variants", depicting circles and abstract shapes. Grandson of the famous Mexican muralist José Clemente Orozco, Gabriel Orozco's photographs, installations and sculptures offer a distinctive model of how artists can influence the world with their work. In the 2008 series The Samurai Tree, Orozco uses a structured set of rules by which he fills his paintings with abstract and sometimes biomorphic variations of ellipses. Gabriel Orozco "Samurai Tree" Hand-knotted in Merino wool. Very fine quality wool. Size : 210x200 cm Condition : good condition *Photos on request MY COMPLETE GALLERY
