900 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Copper

Description

Exceptional 17th century oil painting on copper, depicting Saint Francis of Assisi in a moment of deep devotion. The work features refined details, characteristic of the period, with soft lighting and a masterful use of color to emphasize the saint's serene expression and spiritual presence. The painting is well preserved for its age, with only minor signs of wear consistent with historical artworks of the period. The copper surface enhances the brightness and depth of the composition, a technique widely used by Baroque artists. Overall dimensions (including frame): 15 x 12 cm Painting dimensions: 11 x 8 cm A rare and collectible piece, ideal for connoisseurs of religious art and old master paintings.
