Description

Large 19th Century Marble Architectural Element, forming a medallion or bull's eye.
Very large architectural element in white Carrara marble.

It is a large crown of laurel leaves and plants held at the top by a Louis XVI knot, with its ribbons hanging on the sides.
the whole forms a tondo frame or a bull's eye.
it is a very beautiful framing element in very thick and very heavy solid marble with a thick bronze reed set in the mass.
small restoration on one of the ribbons.
be careful this piece of sculpted marble is very heavy.

a superb marble Louis XVI style decoration.
