Description

This beautiful watercolor and graphite is in very good condition. It was protected by glass until recently. It is sold with its original Marie-Louise, without a frame. Paul Janin (1890-1973) is an artist from Lyon. His works have been auctioned several times, mostly in the Watercolor category. Here, an elegant portrait of a woman in 1941. A label, which is no longer very legible, is still present on the back, mentioning the first and last names of this lady. Dimensions with the Marie-Louise: 48 x 37.5 cm. (8F format). Fast, careful and very secure shipping.
