Alois Kalvoda was a Czech landscape painter, graphic artist, publicist, publisher and teacher. He was one of the most important students of Julius Marák. From 1888 he studied at the Brno grammar school, but did not complete his studies.
In 1892-1899 (with a one-year interruption in 1896/97 due to military service) he became a student of Professor Julius Marák at the Prague Academy. In 1899 he was awarded the Hlávka
