Description

Large serving tray (tea/coffee?) in Paris porcelain, Charles X period, between 1820 and 1824. Large and beautiful oval tray with a rich decoration of flowers and leaves (oak?) on a green background. The central cartouche is decorated with an Asian motif in the Imari style in shades of blue and coral. The inner rim has a rich relief decoration in beige of crowns of flowers pierced with arrows and swans holding garlands of flowers in abundance. The outer rim is decorated with a regular pattern of blue arabesques, which alternate with flowering branches. Note: Some wear to the gilding and decoration, bulge of the tray (see photos).
