Description

Elegant and sculptural, this lamp by Georgia Jacob embodies the refinement of 1970s design. Made from thermo-moulded pleated resin, it evokes a delicate drape that seems frozen in movement. Its soft and warm lighting highlights the translucency of its material, creating an atmosphere that is both intimate and sophisticated. Resting on a discreet base, this iconic piece fits equally well in a contemporary interior as in a vintage decor. A true tribute to the craftsmanship and sculptural design of Georgia Jacob.
