Description

Set of 6 C27 Chairs - René Herbst for Mobilor Iconic design from the 1930s This series of C27 chairs, designed by modernist designer René Herbst for Mobilor, embodies the functional elegance and ingenuity of 20th-century industrial design. With their white-lacquered tubular steel frame and wooden seat, these stackable chairs combine lightness, strength and a refined aesthetic. Renowned for his pioneering work on metal furniture, René Herbst has successfully combined simplicity and ergonomics in this iconic model. Its minimalist and timeless design makes it an ideal choice for a contemporary interior or a space with vintage charm. A collector's item for lovers of design and the history of modern furniture.
