Description

Beautiful Louis XV period duchess or "chaise longue". Made of 2 parts, it is said "broken" and was used in the 18th century for reading. Our duchess is covered with a beautiful raspberry-colored struck velvet with a flower seed pattern from the Manufacture Royale Bonvallet & Lelièvre.

The back is also upholstered in order to be placed at the center of a living room. Beautiful amateur seat, very comfortable and spectacular in a living room or bedroom.

Very good condition, the velvet is almost new, without wear and without stain.

Length: 201cm
