Description

In its original box, lovely set of 12 Louis XVI style coffee / mocha spoons. A handle decorated with a clever work of ribboned threads, crossed ribbons. The spatula is also very finely chiseled with ribbons and laurel garlands. The richness of this set lies in the fact that the abundant chiseled decoration is double-sided, that is to say identical on each side. A very beautiful work by this famous great Parisian goldsmith! Minerva hallmark 1st title and hallmark of the master goldsmith in a diamond "TFres" surmounted by a huguenot (pot). Dimensions: Length of the spoons: 12 cm Weight of the set of spoons: 227 g Weight with their box: 750 g Good condition. Light usual signs of use, micro-scratches.
