Description

Desk in precious wood and finely executed marquetry, inspired by the work of Giuseppe Maggiolini (1738-1814), a cabinetmaker renowned for his detailed neoclassical marquetry. Desk in rosewood, mahogany and walnut veneer, with marquetry in boxwood and lemonwood, representing foliage, floral garlands and a central vase on the top, drawers and feet. Rectangular structure, tapered legs decorated with inlays. Three drawers on the front, brass handles and locks. Italian work, probably Lombardy, 20th century.
