Description

A big and big chichi...
A temple guardian...
In terracotta with openwork...
And enamel toned holes...
The green, the orange and the gray...
With a lot of work on the chiseling...
In very good condition...
A few chips here and there, not serious...
And limescale deposits...
Due to use and time...
And the fact that it was outdoors...!
Possibility of rectifying the chips by a professional...
It is an important piece...
And of quality...!
Of course I can take other photos on request...

Weight... approximately 10 kilos
