Description

This riverside landscape was created by Paul Faugier, a Provençal painter (1841-1915). The work is of high quality, it represents a river, with poplars and two figures. Everything was executed with precision on a cardboard with a pretty later frame from the middle of the 20th century. The work is in good general condition. For the most meticulous, note some wear of gilding on the frame. Our photos allow you to appreciate the quality of the work. For the condition, please detail the photos. Do not hesitate to zoom. The photos are an integral part of the description.
