Description

Superb panoramic view of the city of Bou Saada that all lovers of North Africa know.
Constant Louche, like Maxime Noiré, delights in these panoramic formats and gives us a luminous composition full of light and colors.
This painting is more beautiful in real life than in photos thanks to more powerful contrasts.
It is presented in its original orientalist frame of local manufacture.
These oriental landscapes with a perfectly balanced composition are rare on the market.
Oil on its original canvas in perfect condition.
Careful restoration.
