Description

This stained glass window, inspired by the Renaissance, represents a sheaf of flowers in a vase blending into an architectural decor. It is filled with small decorations: bunches of grapes descending along ropes, two crested birds with long beaks, faces, burst pomegranates, ... It is a work of painting in grisaille, colored enamels and silver yellow on colorless glass. The pieces are assembled with lead. 4 cracks on the red thread are to be noted.
