Description

A stunning series of four prints depicting biblical scenes, created in the mid-18th century. These engravings are based on paintings by Jacopo Amigoni, masterfully engraved by Giovanni Volpato, and printed by the renowned Bartolozzi printmaking workshop. The execution quality is outstanding, with fine and precise lines that enhance the drama and elegance of the compositions. Two of the prints have developed a natural patina over time, with slight yellowing, while the other two remain clear and well-preserved. Each piece is set in a new frame measuring 64x80 cm, with the prints themselves measuring 45x55 cm.
