Description

COD 10573 Antique Italian painting from 18th century. Oil artwork on canvas depicting biblical subject Joseph and and Potiphar's Wife of good pictorial hand. Beautiful measure and pleasant furnishings painting adorned with a non -coeval frame, carved and lacquered. Antique painting that is inspired by the famous work of Giuseppe Bilivert (1585-1644) now exhibited at Palazzo Barberini in Rome. The biblical story tells that the wife of the rich uproar tried in vain to seduce the young servant Joseph. The woman refused, to take revenge, will then accuse him of violence in front of her husband so as to have Joseph locked in the Pharaoh's prisons. Artwork of pleasant perspective, full of details and of excellent dynamism, for antique dealers and furnishings. Painting that has undergone a conservative
