Description

Vintage half-eternity ring crafted in 18K white gold, probably dating from the 1980s-1990s, and set with an alternating row of emeralds and calibrated baguette-cut diamonds.The emeralds display an intense slightly bluish green color and a beautiful eye-clean appearance, with a tone reminiscent of fine Colombian emeralds.Their color is enhanced by the brilliance of the baguette-cut diamonds, whose calibrated proportions emphasize the strong geometric rhythm of the design.Distinctive and elegant, this half-eternity ring stands out for its bold geometric structure, giving it a chic yet understated character. It can be worn on its own, stacked with other bands, or paired with an engagement ring for a more individual look.Details:o Period: late 20th century, probably 1980s-1990so Metal: 18K
