Description
-------------

Very beautiful oil on cardboard signed "Maclet" for Élisée Maclet (1881-1962), famous painter of Montmartre where he found success from the 1920s. Composition of colors for a landscape painting located on the back in Montigny-sur-Loing. Around 1920. Élisée Maclet was close to Maurice Utrillo and frequented artists such as Pablo Picasso, Guillaume Apollinaire, Lucien Genin (also from Normandy like Maclet) in Paris. He is recognized for his use of pure color, with relatively saturated tones as here, and in pictorial material. The work is in very good condition. In a gilded Art Nouveau style frame. Cardboard dimensions: 55 cm x 45 cm.
