Description

The Duke of Wellington at the Battle of Waterloo, 19th Century English School Large 19th century English School scene depicting the Duke of Wellington at the Battle of Waterloo, oil on canvas. Rare and original scene at the climax of the battle as Wellington, ever present in the midst of danger, rallies his weakened British division with the famous quote "What will they say of this in England" as the French cavalry prepare to attack. Good condition for its age, dating from near the battle as opposed to a historical genre scene. Presented in its original antique gilt frame. Dimensions: 34" x 26.5" framed approximately
