Description

Landscape of a waterfront animated by a fisherman and his boat. Beautiful depth and brightness, good mastery of colors. Oil on canvas signed lower left by Friedrich Ferdinand Koch (1863-1923), German artist who painted many landscapes, often inspired by the surrounding nature, portraits and scenes of everyday life. His compositions are balanced, and his characters are rendered with great finesse, these paintings are realistic and filled with poetry, his color palette is often soft and harmonious with subtle nuances to create serene atmospheres. Ferdinand Koch's work is very varied, ranging from small sketches to large canvases. He tackled many subjects, always with great technical mastery and artistic sensitivity that offer a unique look at the world around him. Period wooden frame covered with
