Description

Pair of ceramic wall lights by Jean Marais. Deep black and subtly finished, these works reflect Jean Marais' meticulous attention to expression and form. Far from being simple light fixtures, these wall lights are true sculptures, capturing the essence of theatre and mystery. A multifaceted artist, Jean Marais (1913-1998) was a key figure in French cinema and theatre, famous for his roles in Jean Cocteau's films. Passionate about the arts, he also devoted himself to sculpture and ceramics, leaving behind works imbued with strength and poetry. A rare piece for art and design lovers, combining utility and aesthetics in an exceptional object. Provenance: purchased directly from the Mougins workshop. Perfect condition
