Description

Magnificent pair of 925 sterling silver candlesticks, Isabelline style Exceptional pair of 925 sterling silver candlesticks, handcrafted by a very talented goldsmith. They rest on a wide base where the marks of authenticity of the silver (Star of David and seal of origin) are found, decorated with elegant undulating motifs. From this base rises a slender shaft, finely chiseled, decorated with reliefs of acanthus leaves. In the upper part, a richly decorated platform supports a sculpture of a winged putto or cherub, represented full-length, arms raised, holding a ribbon surrounding a cornucopia. This horn, finely carved with leaves and bunches of grapes, has a central space to insert a candle. Every detail reflects the exceptional know-how of Spanish goldsmithing, making these candlesticks a unique
