Description

These exquisite Art Nouveau bronze candlesticks, in the manner of Tiffany & Co., embody the nature-inspired aesthetic of the era. Adorned with intricately detailed sculptural insects, including beetles, they bring a sense of organic elegance to their design. The slim, elongated stems gracefully connect the bases and the holders, emphasizing verticality and balance. Sculptural embellishments of insects are skillfully integrated into the bases and central sections, demonstrating exceptional craftsmanship and attention to detail. The pieces feature an aged patina with warm bronze hues, further enhancing their antique aesthetic and charm. The design captures the naturalistic focus of Art Nouveau, a hallmark of the Tiffany & Co. style, making these candlesticks a timeless addition to any collection.
