

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Pair Of Louis XV Style Sauce Boats In Solid Silver, Made By The Brussels Goldsmith Delhe

1 500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Description

Pair of Louis XV style sauce boats in solid silver, made by the Brussels goldsmith Delheid, late 19th century. This superb set is composed of two sauce boats on a fixed tray, accompanied by their two matching spoons, the set being in 800 thousandth silver. The decoration is particularly refined, with animated edges decorated with rocaille motifs and stylized shells, typical of the Louis XV style. Each sauce boat rests on a finely chiseled raised base, giving the set an elegant and majestic presence on a table. The handle of the spoons is decorated with a finely engraved monogram, adding a personalized touch and testifying to its history. Characteristics: o Goldsmith: Delheid, Brussels o Period: late 19th century o Solid silver: 800 thousandth hallmark o Total weight: 1.134 kg o Condition: excellent,

Dealer

MGA gallery

La passion de l'argenterie

Tel : +32 477 63 01 17

Rue Watteeu 9 et 25

Bruxelles 1000

with a beautiful period patina A magnificent table set, both decorative and functional, ideal for collectors of antique silverware or to enhance a table during elegant receptions.