Description

- Cast iron sculpture representing a chimera with traces of polychromy, work from the end of the 19th century.

-This sculpted object evokes a chimera; a dragon's head, clawed wings, a female body with a chest. This fantastic cast iron creature is covered with a polychrome patina (green, black and orange) which adds to the supernatural character of the animal.

- Dimensions: Height: 38 cm, Width: 14 cm, Depth: 16.5 cm
