Description

This is a finely crafted vintage storage jar, attributed to the 1930s, showcasing exceptional workmanship and a timeless design. Made from white metal, possibly silver-plated or pewter, the jar features a striking vertical fluted motif that exemplifies the refined artistry of the period. The removable, domed lid with a decorative finial adds both practicality and elegance, reflecting the quality craftsmanship that was highly valued during the Art Deco era. Use and Context: This storage jar combines functionality and artistry, making it a staple in refined households for storing loose-leaf tea, spices, or powders. Its exceptional craftsmanship and decorative fluted design also make it an eye-catching display piece. NO SURPRISE SHIPPING COSTS -UK & EU: Free Shipping - price includes packing,
