Description

Authentic Mountain Cupboard (Confiturier) from the French Alps, 18th-Century Alpine Art. A rare, genuine piece with simple, robust, and minimalist lines. Beautiful patina. Wood: Mountain softwood. Opens via two central doors adorned with a rosette within a diamond shape. Furniture of this type is often modest in size to fit mountain chalets and smaller living spaces. They're designed to maximize storage without taking up too much room, making them practical for traditional mountain homes. In very good condition, missing its lock. It closes with a small wooden latch at the top of the doors. Routine restorations: the shelf boards are from a more recent period, as is the back panel, likely replaced. Measurements: o Height: 172 cm o Width: 106 cm o Depth: 35 cm Safe and secure
