Description

This small convertible is made of wood, wrought iron, leather and bronze. The horse is made of a frame (probably wood) covered with a thick canvas and then a real animal skin with short hair, the mane is made of horsehair. There are wheels under the hooves that allow the convertible to be moved by rolling it. It may be a child's toy or a photographer's studio convertible for his young clients. It is an absolutely exceptional object.

Dimensions: 150x77x50cm.
